

Domestic Violence Support Group Drop-in Group for First Step clients

Child care provided

Beginning Thursday, June 4, 2010
6:00 pm to 7:30 pm

First Step provides a safe, comfortable atmosphere for women seeking emotional support due to the effects of experiencing violence in an intimate relationship.

The goal of the DV group is to provide mutual support to survivors working through the effects of the abuse, to encourage personal growth in all areas of life, to develop trusting and caring relationships with other survivors and to learn more about the abuse and the effects on oneself.

Child care will be provided, however you must call First Step within 24—48 hours to arrange**

Contact Amy Dowd or Beth Seedott for questions or to arrange childcare.
