

Employment Opportunity:

Residential Program Aide

OVERVIEW

The Residential Program Aide is an integral part of First Step's residential services. This position is dedicated to ensuring the delivery of comprehensive and confidential services to survivors within our 24-hour residential facility. In addition to meeting the needs of survivors, the Residential Program Aide actively supports the day-to-day operations, maintenance, and upkeep of the residential facility.

The Residential Program Aide takes a proactive and trauma-informed approach to survivor care, not only facilitating intake and transition into shelter but also demonstrating a commitment fostering a welcoming environment, cultivating positive interactions with survivors, and creating community for survivors.

First Step works hard to create a workplace that is dynamic. We encourage people with diverse identities and experiences who are excited about equity and social justice to apply.

First Step provides comprehensive training and supervision to all employees.
